Be a part of more than a century long Wentworth LOVE story

Joshua Trickey built The Wentworth in 1869 as a wedding gift to his daughter Georgia and her husband to-be, General Marshall Wentworth, who approached her father with these words:

“I think I can make your daughter happy—we love each other devotedly— and if we can get your consent we shall be very happy.”

Their marriage and love for The Wentworth property stood the test of time and become a part of its enduring legacy.
